More Building.

J. C. Thompson is having some handsome improvements made on his dwelling, on Danville avenue. The residences of S. C. Denny and H. M. Ballou are rapidly nearing completion.

Will Build.

H. A. B. Marksbury has made arrangements to erect a large grain and hemp warehouse on his lot near L. & N. tracks. It will be 50 x 100 feet, three stories and to be completed July 1st.

Want to Close at 7:30.

The clerks are preparing to make an effort to have the stores close at 7:30 in the evening. They work from 6 A. M., and it is not right to ask for more than twelve hours, unless additional pay is given.

Damaging Hail.

A severe hail storm struck several parts of the county Monday. Great damage was done, especially to garden truck. The storm swung around Lancaster, missing it on three sides from three to six miles out.

Honor for the Judge.

Gov. Bradley has appointed Judge R. A. Burnside as a delegate to the National Fish Commissioner's meeting at Niagara Falls, June 28 and 29. The Judge says he would like to take Dave Ross with him and make a "drag" under the Falls.

"Next!"

Henry and John Duncan have consolidated their shops and are now in the old stand over Powell's store, corner Public Square and Lexington street. Polite attention, sharp razors, clean towels and many years experience fit them to do the best of work. tf.

Premiums.

The Howard Tailoring Co., of Chicago, is giving a pure fur felt hat with each suit sold during May. They are "A 1" hats and the latest styles. No change in prices. Fits guaranteed. Give us a trial order, as many are doing. M. D. Hughes, agent.

Destroying the Fish.

It is reported that seining and dynamiting is being carried on with a high hand in Dix river and in Hanging Fork. There is a good reward for arrest and conviction of parties doing this, and fishermen should take some steps to prevent the total destruction of the fish.

Little Coons.

Three or four dozen little negroes loaf about the streets every night, block the side walks and make themselves a nuisance in many ways. Marshal Walker gathered in a covey of them Saturday night and we hope it will have a tendency to make the little rascals be more particular in the future.

Colored Odd Fellows.

The colored Odd Fellows turned out Sunday afternoon to hear their annual sermon, which was delivered in the Methodist church. This lodge is composed of the very best colored men in the county, and their careful guard at the ballot box has made them one of the best lodges in the state. They own a fine building and have as handsome regalia as any white lodge.

Good for George.

Senator George T. Farris tells THE RECORD he secured a big contract for shoes last week at Frankfort. Mr. Farris represents Conn, Martin, & Co., wholesale dealers, of Louisville. He was present at the letting of contracts for shoes at the state Penitentiary last week and was the successful bidder on supplying footwear for 2,000 men and 60 women convicts for the next six months. This is a long feather for the clever Senator's cap and we glory in his success.

The Sidewalk Ordinance.

The City Council has served notice on many parties to construct sidewalks in front of their premises, and THE RECORD is requested to say the ordinance will be strictly enforced. The matter has been held up on account of the bad weather but we are informed that in cases where owners refuse to comply with the law, the pavements will be laid and the property owner made to pay for it.

A Royal Time.

Quite a number of local Knights of Pythias attended the district meeting at Danville Tuesday. The brethren are loud in their praise of the elegant manner in which the Danville boys entertained them. We received a special invitation from brother Harry Giovannoli to attend the banquet, but were unable to accept.

Stanford Court.

There were about 100 cattle on the market Monday, and most of them changed hands. Some good steers brought as high as 54c, but 5c was the ruling price for them. Heifers were about 4c and butcher stuff 3 to 3 1/2c. Plug horses were dull and only a few mules sold. The prices for the latter were $45 to $80.—Journal.

A Paint Lick Enterprise.

Adams' Fistula Salve, put up by Adams & Fish, Paint Lick, is meeting with ready sale every where. Persons who have used it say it's a marked success and a sure cure for Fistula, Pilevill, Swinney, Scratches, Enlargement, Greasy Heel, etc. It is sold on a written guarantee, and money refunded if not as represented. ap-13

Opera Chairs Bought.

The Opera House Co., has closed a contract with the Andrews Furniture Co., Chicago, for seven hundred handsome, up-to-date opera chairs for the new building. Those for the lower floor are stained mahogany and the ones for the balcony are of the finest oak. They are made with filling seats, hat and cloak racks, and are the very latest and most improved pattern.

Cheap Hash.

An enterprising firm has sent a lot of letter heads to Lancaster business men, which would be mighty nice if it were not for the immense advertisement of the firm on them. This is a "cheap-hash" way of advertising their goods and also makes the user thereof appear a little close. Anything which is not worth advertising in the legitimate and regular way, comes of the "short" order, of course.

A Nice Spread.

The visiting politicians were given a handsome dinner at the Hamilton House Tuesday. Among those who had the pleasure of sticking their shins under the mahogany were Senator Goebel, Hon. C. B. Hill, Senator Geo. Farris, Capt. J. R. Ryan, Letcher Owsley, J. E. Robinson, Squire Dunn and several others. The dinner was pronounced elegant in every way.

Our Collector.

Mr. R. E. Henry has been employed as solicitor and collector for THE RECORD. He will ask everyone indebted to the paper to fork out the cash, and will not stop until he has either gotten the money or learns the reason why. We do not employ a collector for the fun of the thing, but because we need the money due us, and need it badly. Please take due notice and govern yourself accordingly.

Handsome Endorsement.

The patrons of the Graded School, and many others who send no pupils there, showed their appreciation of the faithful work of Messrs. B. F. Hudson and Lewis Y. Leavell by giving them the largest vote ever polled in a similar election. Notwithstanding the fact that there were no opposing names on the poll books, the people left their business and went to the building to vote. Had it not been Saturday a great many more would have gone, but as it was they could not leave their stores.

Glorious News.

We learn, from several sources, that Dr. J. B. Owsley, of Stanford, has brought the interest of his partner, Mr. Shanks, in the lots adjoining the National Bank and will shortly begin the erection of handsome two-story business houses thereon. We know that Capt. Ryan, the architect, offered Dr. Owsley $2,500 for the lots and it was refused. We hear Dr. Owsley's intention to put up substantial and up-to-date buildings with big fire walls between each room. This is glorious news and we sincerely hope every word of it is true.

Noted Lecturer Coming.

Mrs. Susan S. Fessenden, of Boston, Mass., will speak at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon, and again at night. The afternoon lecture will be mainly to the children of the Loyal Temperance Legion, but old and young will be interested and are invited to attend. Songs, appropriate to the occasion, will be rendered by the children, and everything possible done to make both entertainments enjoyable and instructive.

Mrs. Fessenden comes to us under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. For many years she served as the State President of that organization in Massachusetts, but withdrew to enter the field as a National Lecturer. She comes to us highly recommended as a platform speaker, and a lady of rare ability and culture, and we bespeak for her a good audience, and for those who hear her a most delightful occupation. Admission free to all.

Repairs on Exchange.

The big switchboard at the telephone exchange was taken to Richmond the other day where some parties have a regular repair shop fitted up. The board was completely overhauled and is now working like greased lightning. The day it was out we had no service and the people were firmly convinced that they can not get along without the convenience. There are about two hundred connections which subscribers get the benefit of, and our people are now wondering how they ever got along without their telephone. There are a few more "plugs" left on the board, but they will be taken soon.

The School Contest.

A large crowd attended the Contest at the Graded School building Friday evening and enjoyed the entertainment very much. As stated last issue, it was to select representatives to the Graded School Tournament to be held in Somerset the 21th. There were about half a dozen entries and each participant did so well the audience was at a loss to pick the winner. The judges however soon announced Master Green Clay Walker and pretty Miss Edna Mason as entitled to the honors. These will represent the Lancaster school and we feel safe they will fare equally as well in the final contest. During the evening some sweet music was rendered by pupils of the school.

Hustling at Stanford.

The Stanford Journal says a Commercial Club has been organized in that city for the purpose of hustling for the town's interests. Efforts will be made to secure factories and other industries. The Journal further states the Club offered $5,000 in cash and free water to the L. & N., if the division be placed back at Rowland, but the railroad people would not accept the offer. Keep pulling, neighbors. You'll never get anything if you don't hustle for it. By the way, if our Stanford friends will help get the day passenger trains we are now after, it will be a good thing for them. It will be better for them than for us, as it will put two train crews there and give them the best railroad facilities in central Kentucky. What say ye, Bro. Walton?

Much Oratory.

The Court House was pretty well filled Tuesday afternoon by those who wanted to hear the gifted stumpster, Hon. Wm. Goebel, and the other candidates in town. There were many Republicans and a good sprinkling of gold Democrats on hand. It was one of the most orderly crowds we ever saw at a political gathering and each speaker was given marked attention. Mr. Goebel is a good speaker and knows how to present a point in a clear way. He dwelt at length on the election law which bears his name, praised the McChord bill, devoted much time to the silver cause, touched up the Republican administration, eulogized Wm. J. Bryan, espoused the Chinn school book bill and paid his respects to P. Wat Hardin. Mr. Goebel is full of humor and at many times caused great laughter, especially when ridiculing his opponent, Mr. Hardin. The latter seemed to be his chief target, as he never referred to Mr. Stone, the other candidate.

At the conclusion of Mr. Goebel's talk, senator Hays, of Jefferson county told the crowd of his candidacy for lieutenant governor, and he was followed by Judge C. B. Hill, of Lee county, who wants the nomination for secretary of state. The speeches served to stir the boys up and those who have nothing else to do have been given something to talk about.

Commercial Club.

The regular meeting of the Commercial Club held Tuesday night was well attended. Mr. Griffin, the L. & N. traveling freight agent, was present. He was asked why it was that shippers claimed to get better rates from Danville to Cincinnati than from this point. He said if there were any differences he was not aware of them, the two roads had precisely the same published rates. He said he had heard these charges, but could never get a shipper to furnish him with figures whereby the L. & N. could take action. The road could not act on rumor, and no shipper having furnished the direct proof, of course no action could be taken. The question of hauling coal to Louisville for about half the rate to Lancaster was brought up, and Mr. Walker, the road's attorney, said they were obliged to take coal to Louisville on the very smallest margin on account of the Pittsburg coal being brought there by river. He said that if any shipper would present the L. & N. with a receipt showing that their road had charged more than any other, on any commodity, the wrong would certainly be righted, and that quickly. The chair then appointed a committee to ascertain, if possible, any cases where Lancaster shippers were at a disadvantage. Mr. Griffin remaining over to learn of such cases. They will prepare a statement, showing discrimination, claimed and Mr. Griffin will present the matter to the L. & N. management at once, for adjustment.
